Real Estate for Sale

THE GREATEST BUSINESS OFFER for all kinds of property, store-houses of any size, especially for business purposes, building especially for twenty-five years. The owner has built everything on this property that heart could wish for, planted every variety of fruit, raised a large family, and has done from $6,000 to $75,000 worth of building and business is still in its infancy. This business is on the market at a sacrifice, not by any agent or real estate man, but by the owner, so the reason that I am too heavy for my mercantile business any longer. I weigh 275 and I prefer to retire to my farm. It worries me too much to think it is in bad hands.

DAILY PUZZLE

ILLNESS OF JONES CAUSES NO ALARM

[Special to The Times-Dispatch] Washington, October 24.—Although friends of Representative William A. Jones, of Virginia, are somewhat alarmed at his physical condition, he having been ill for the past month, part of the time at his home at Warsaw, he is improving in the last few days at a Washington hotel. Jones is said to be anxious, according to what the attending physician, Dr. Sterling Rulin, said to The Times-Dispatch correspondent to-night concerning the case.

When efforts were made to get telephone connection with Mr. Jones's apartments at the hotel where he is staying, The Times-Dispatch correspondent was informed that such connection had been discontinued. Dr. Rulin, the physician in charge of the case, was then sought, and he made the following statement:

"Mr. Jones is suffering from the same trouble with which he has been affected for some time, arthritis. I believe, however, that he will be over this in three or four days. After that it will probably be necessary for him to go to a hospital for an operation of a minor trouble on his throat."

"I do not consider the present trouble serious at this time, and confidently hope that Mr. Jones will be out of it within the time I have mentioned," he said.

The stock transfer books will be open for inspection this afternoon on November 5, 1913, and will be re-opened on November 17, 1913.
